Toss and turning around
Hearing life's crazy sounds
Outside my window
I'm gonna stay here in bed
Covers over my head
I feel so tired
The world can wait for me
'Cause the past few nights I couldn't sleep
'Cause I've been thinking about you lately
The thought of you makes me crazy
Please come back
I want you here
Right by my side
Oh please come back
Oh girl I need
Something to believe
Something to believe
If I only knew
How to reach you
I'd grab your hand and
Take you where you belong

Here inside my arms

Hold you close, that's what I'd do

I'll just wait for you

And you could maybe make my dreams come true

Oh I've been thinking about you lately

I'm driving myself too crazy

Please come back

I want you here

Right by my side

Oh please come back

Oh girl I need

Something to believe, something to believe

Something to believe, oh something to believe

If I could take you away?

Would you go would you stay?

Could you love me today, today, today

Could you love me today, today, today

Please come back

I want you here

Right by my side

Oh please come back

Oh girl I need

Something to believe, something to believe

Something to believe, oh, something to believe

Would you go would you stay

Could you love me today
