Somehow through this house of mine

The windows shattered

The brick walls crumbled down

All without a sound

How this happened, I don't know

But this funny feeling's something

I've never felt before

CHORUS:

Like a thief in the night

You came around, you came around

To steal away my heart

Didn't see, didn't hear

When you came around

When you came around

To steal away my heart

You took everything away

You took my soul

You took my heart

But I've been smiling these days

If there's one thing that I've found

It's that love can sneak behind

And pin you to the ground

CHORUS

Oh, it came to be

Sounds hard to believe

That love found me

That love found me

CHORUS

When you came around

I gave away my heart
