Don't like it when you hang out with him
You tell me that you're friends... I'm jealous
You say "I love you" and I'm the only one you'll kiss
And I'm the only one you'll miss... but I'm jealous
Oh my crazy imagination
Takes me in your shoes
He drives a better car
He's better lookin' than me
You get along so well
When you're with him I'm just someone else
I know this isn't true cuz I know it when I look at you
It's uneasy when I'm waiting for you
All the questions that I try to deny
They're hiding deep inside
I don't want it
It's so much worse when I can not see it hurt
Can I feel so insecure
Don't want it
Oh my crazy imagination
Takes me in your shoes
He drives a better car

He's better lookin' than me
You get along so well
When you're with him I'm just someone else
I know this isn't true cuz I know it when I look at you
It's uneasy when I'm waiting for you
It's an illusion I tell myself
It's so confusing so hard not to tell
Girl do you notice, girl can you see
What you're doing to me?
He drives a better car
He's better lookin' than me
You get along so well
When you're with him I'm just someone else
I know this isn't true cuz I know it when I look at you
It's uneasy when I'm waiting for you
