Turn the lights on

Your heart, my hands, safety, my arms
Right here, I stand, to protect you from harm
And just when you thought running away
Is the only thing that you could do
I came to protect you from the rain
Just call my name

When the night falls (when the night falls)
In the darkness I'll be waiting
There in the shadow (shadow)
When you come I'll find a way to get to you
I'll find a way, I'll find a way
I'll find a way to get to you
I'll find a way, I'll find a way, I'll find a way

My kiss, your face, my home, your heart
Nothing can rephrase my love, wont be far
And just when you thought I wouldn't stay
I'm standing here right at your door, yeah
I'm here to keep the danger away
So you won't fear

When the night falls (when the night falls)
In the darkness I'll be waiting
There in the shadow (shadow)
When you come I'll find a way to get to you
I'll find a way, I'll find a way
I'll find a way to get to you
I'll find a way, I'll find a way, I'll find a way

When your sleep round head back those unfamiliar faces
You can find comfort in my, sweet warm embraces, yeah
So fear not, my love is here to save you
Save you from the dark

When the night falls (when the night falls)
In the darkness I'll be waiting

There in the shadow (shadow)
When you come I'll find a way to get to you
I'll find a way, I'll find a way
I'll find a way to get to you
I'll find a way, I'll find a way, I'll find a way
