When you're hanging with your friends at night
And everything just feels alright
Its always gonna get cha, every time

The sun is out, you're feeling great
There is no time to hesitate
It's always gonna get cha, every time

It comes on fast
You just hope that it will last
It's got a mind of its own
It will not leave you alone
It comes on like a friend
Who leaves you crazy in the head
It sneaks up on you, when you least expect it to

So hold on tight, with both your hands
Forget about those future plans
It's always gonna get cha, every time
It's always gonna get cha, every time

A piece of advice comes to you with a price
A lesson I have learned, at least once or twice
So play it cool, and you will see
You can end up just like me
Its always gonna get cha, every time
Its always gonna get cha, every time

It comes on fast
You just hope that it will last
It's got a mind of its own
It will not leave you alone
It comes on like a friend
Who leaves you crazy in the head
It sneaks up on you, when you least expect it to

So hold on tight, with both your hands
Forget about those future plans
It's always gonna get cha, every time
It's always gonna get cha, every time
It's always gonna get cha, every time
