I walked in, she was waiting
It was late and I was drunk
She said it's a quarter to ten
Where have you been?
You better have a good excuse me for me

I said, hey, please be honored
'Cuz that's where I spent the night
First I hit a bar, smashed my car
And I ended up in a fight

She slapped the cruel spell of love on me, baby
The cruel spell of love on me, Jack
She slapped the cruel spell of love on me, baby
She wears the black nightgown for me

She slapped the cruel spell of love on me, baby
The cruel spell of love on me, Jack
She slapped the cruel spell of love on me, baby
She mad a deal with the devil for me

(solos)

She slapped the cruel spell of love on me, baby
The cruel spell of love on me, Jack
She slapped the cruel spell of love on me, baby
She wears the black nightgown for me

She slapped the cruel spell of love on me, baby
The cruel spell of love on me, Jack
She slapped the cruel spell of love on me, baby
She mad a deal with the devil for me
Yeah!
