Who's that creepin' through my window
Who's that creepin' through my door
You see, I know lots and lots of folks around these parts now
But I ain't never seen you before
I hear you creepin' through my kitchen
I hear you creepin' through my den
I'm starting to get the shakes now, Jack
You see, I don't know where you've been
I'm sweatin', and shakin', goin' out of my head
I'm observing from my position underneath my bed
I'm swearin' and pleadin' to leave me be
If you leave Mr., and set me free I said
Who's that creepin' through my bedroom?
Who's that creepin' through my hall?
If you leave right now and let me alone
I promise you I won't pick up that telephone no, no
I'm sweatin', and shakin', goin' out of my head
I'm observing from my position underneath my bed
I'm swearin' and pleadin' to leave me be
If you leave Mr., and set me free I said
Who's that creepin' through my window
Who's that creepin' through my door
You see, I know lots and lots of folks around these parts now
But I ain't never seen you before
I said who's that creepin' (who's that creepin')
Who's that creepin'(who's that creepin')
Who's that creepin'(who's that creepin')
Who's that creepin'(who's that creepin')
Who's that creepin'(who's that creepin')
Who's that creepin'(who's that creepin')
Who's that creepin'(who's that creepin')
Who's that creepin' through my front door?
