Well, I call it like I see it
And you could never be it
So your eyes are always closed
You don't see beyond your nose

You know you wrong, you know you wrong
You know you wrong, you know you wrong
You know you wrong, you know you wrong
You know you wrong, you know you wrong

You see now I don't wanna fight
'Cause you ain't never right
You know you wrong, you know you wrong
You know you wrong

Now the girl that you just met's
Got you tied up like a pet
Got you coming, got you going
Got you never ever knowin'

That you wrong, you know you wrong
You know you wrong, you know you wrong
You know you wrong, you know you wrong
You know you wrong, you know you wrong

You see now I don't wanna fight
'Cause you ain't never right
You know you wrong, you know you wrong
You know you wrong

And even though I know you love this song
You sit and sing it all day long
It doesn't change a simple fact
That brother you still don't know Jack

At the end of the day, I can always hear you say
That everything happens because of your way

You know you wrong, you know you wrong
You know you wrong, you know you wrong
You know you wrong, you know you wrong
You know you wrong, you know you wrong

You see now I don't wanna fight
'Cause you ain't never right
You know you wrong, you know you wrong
You know you wrong

And even though I know you love this song
You sit and sing it all day long
It doesn't change a simple fact
That brother you still don't know Jack

At the end of the day, I can always hear you say
Everything happens because of your way

You know you wrong, you know you wrong
You know you wrong, you know you wrong
You know you wrong, you know you wrong
You know you wrong, you know you wrong

You see now I don't wanna fight
'Cause you ain't never right
You know you wrong, you know you wrong
You know you wrong

You know you wrong, you know you wrong
You know you wrong, you know you wrong
You know you wrong, you know you wrong
You know you wrong, you know you wrong

You see now I don't wanna fight
'Cause you ain't never right
You know you wrong, you know you wrong
You know you wrong
