This is me, can you take another look?
Did I see you looking blindly at your book?
Is it all that you thought, that you thought it took?
Can it be taken, taken at all?

Were you looking for signs along the way?
Can you see by your lonely light of day?
Is this road really the only way?
Can this road be taken, taken at all?

We lost it on the highway
Down the dotted line
You were going your way
I was going mine

We lost it on the highway
Things are out of sight
You were going your way
Trying to make a light along the way

Can you see by your lonely light of day?
Is this road really the only way?
Can this road be taken, taken at all?
Can this road be taken, taken at all?
