Don't you cry when we're through
I got a cold cold heart
I do

Growing old, faking new Something borrowed
And then
Again
Something blue

My cold heart can't go wrong
And it gets me around
In bounds
Along
Can't define what is love
Should I then pray out to the one
Above

I don't have that stuff you need
But I can get down on my knees
I'll ease your pain, your appetite
For today it's ok. It's alright.
It's alright as long as I don't have to stay
My cold heart can't take it any other way

Out of luck, knock on wood
And I just left you because I could
My cold heart, who could tell?
That all this silence would burn
And turn
To hell

(Roy Orbison lookalike comes in underneath a bright spotlight)
"Long before I knew you
There was someone who cared
That warned my heart
And made it part
So high above the land"

I know what you're going through

I feel like I already know you
Why don't you come here near the light
It's ok. It's ok. It's ok. It's ok. It's alright.
I don't have that stuff you need
But I can get down on my knees
I'll ease your pain, your appetite
For today it's ok. It's alright.
It's alright as long as I don't have to stay
My cold heart can't take it any other way
It's alright as long as ice can't turn to stone
I won't be alone

Don't you cry when we've been through I've got this cold heart because Because
I do.
