I dream in colours,
I drift in circles,
The falling angels,
The popping bubbles...

I dream in numbers,
And I count them backwards,
And I see you waiting at the,
Zero hours, so...

Exploding pumpkins,
The dying flowers,
The bloodsheds turns to
Songs, buildings, towers...

So I sit on your wall,
If I get there first,
I'll drown in your love,
I'll never wake up...
I'll never wake up...

I dream in colours
I dream in colours
I dream in colours

So I sit on your wall,
And I'll get there first,
I'll drown in your love,
I'll never wake up...
I'll never wake up...
