Maybe I'm half, maybe I'm whole
So you take your time and dance beneath the night
I'll show you something

Maybe I'm lost, baby you're found
God claps his hands, cradles you in his arms
God listens

Oh nah nah you're safe
Oh nah nah you can stay
Oh nah nah don't be afraid
Oh nah nah don't be ashamed

Maybe your love is something I knew
Some other place that needed me more than now
I gave you something
You wild heart, your silent eyes
God claps his hands, tells me you could be mine
I listen

Oh nah nah you're safe
Oh nah nah you can stay
Oh nah nah don't be afraid
Oh nah nah don't be ashamed

Everything you are
Everything you say
Everything comes back today
Everything you've held
Everything you hold
Everything comes back today
Today
