In the big city, chasing big dreams,
Seems like the spot lights out of reach.
When will they notice?
Why they don't hear?
Why won't you listen to my melody?
One day I will be a star
Living life on a high
My name on a mark big enough to see from Mars!

Chorus:

And I wanna be a celebrity!
Everybody knows me, the celebrity!
Oh, oh, oh, cause I wanna be a celebrity!
Oh, oh, oh, oh, cause I wanna be a celebrity!

Paparazzi all around me, pictures in every magazine

... rumors, commercial consumers,...
This is the reality of a star...
My name on mark big enough to see from Mars

Chorus:

And I wanna be a celebrity!
Everybody knows me, the celebrity!
Oh, oh, oh, cause I wanna be a celebrity!
Oh, oh, oh, oh, cause I wanna be a celebrity!
Oh, oh, oh, cause I wanna be a celebrity!
Oh, oh, oh, oh, cause I wanna be a celebrity!
Everybody know me!
And I wanna be a celebrity!
Everybody knows me, the celebrity!
