(feat. John Martin)

Chasing summer on the rooftops
On the high beats and the air we breathe, the air we breathe
Running reckless, couldn't care less

I remember it will set you free, it will see you free!

Oh, I can be a little stronger
And try a little harder
We can do better
If we love a little louder
Love a little louder
Love a little louder
Love a little louder
Love a little louder

Lost the daylight
Loving red light
Tasting first touch
What you wanna feel?
What you wanna feel?

And we're rising and stumbling and fall
Here we are, here we are, here we are
You and me, is you and me.

Oh, I can be a little stronger
And try a little harder
We can do better
If we love a little louder.
Oh, I can be a little stronger
And try a little harder
We can do better
If we love a little louder.
Love a little louder
Love a little louder
Love a little louder
Love a little louder
