A change of heart
I've had some time to think it over
I've had a change of heart, girl...
Change of heart
Absence made my love grow stronger
I wanna change your mind, girl
I've had a change of heart!

A change of heart
Now that I have thought it over
I've had a change of heart, girl
Change of heart
Absence made my heart grow fond
I wanna change your mind, girl
I've had a change of heart!

I never saw what was there in your eyes, my love
I know you gave more than I could receive.
Say there's no wrong that we can't rise above;
I know I said goodbye, but I don't wanna leave...

I've had a change of heart
Change of heart, change of heart; Oh, change of heart,
change of heart
To lose you know would be a cryin' shame;
Say there's still a place for me in your heart.

Believe me, darlin', I have learned from my mistake...
I missed your kiss while we were apart!

You see a change of heart
I've had some time to think it over
I've had a change of heart, girl
A change of heart
A change of heart..
