I've been spending empty days
And sleepless nights
No matter what I do
Nothing turns out right
Got to find a way that I can let you know
No one on this earth could ever
Love you so

Not a day goes by
I don't think of you
Not a night
I don't cry for you
Not a second of each day
You don't steel my heart away
Not a day goes by
When I don't think of you

I've been standing just outside of a broken heart
Tryin' to make the peace's thing
But you're the missing part
Feel like you can finely hear my unspoken words
All the things I've always said
Yet you're never hurt

Not a day goes by â€¦

Seconds drift away
And what was now is yesterday â€¦
