I got a gal down in Georgia, one in Mississippi, too
I got a gal down in Georgia, one in Mississippi, too Lord, I found out what that a little gal in New Orleans can do

She said her mother was too young, an Indian was her
dad
She said her mother was too young, an Indian was her
I know she give me a feelin', something that I never had

Since you come from Chicago, baby, you changed your name
Baby, since you come from Chicago, on a clown, you changed your name
Little girl, you changed your way of walkin', ain't nothing about you the same

I didn't guess now you're here in Chicago, I know'ed
you in New Orleans
I didn't guess now you're here in Chicago, baby, I know'ed you in New Orleans Baby, I know'ed you down there where you were eatin'
rise and beans

Since you come from Chicago, baby, you changed your
Baby, since you come from Chicago, on a clown, you
changed your name
I found out you can walkin', baby, you just don't walk the same

I didn't guess now you're here in Chicago, I know'ed
you in New Orleans
I didn't guess now you're here in Chicago, I know'ed
you in New Orleans
Yes, I know'ed you down there where you were eatin'
rise and beans
