Wait

Waiting for a sign

Crying to the sky

For love to come around

So hope won't let me down

Shadows carry o'er

Night is all but gone

Your promise calls to me

Of love so rescue me

There is a hope beyond this night

There is a savior in the sky

Giving his life to set this world on fire

Here before the flames begin

Passion burn within

Our lantern as we wait

For love to save the day

There is a hope beyond this life

There is a savior in the sky

Giving his life to set this world on fire

So as the darkness closes in

Know that the sun will shine again

Bringing salvation to a world on fire (to save the day)

As our king you will bring

Your truth, to guide and keep us

All of hell, can not rebel against your love

Pay your life (waiting for a sign)

Take my life (crying to the sky)

Set my heart (for love to come around)

On fire (so hope won't let me down)

There is a hope beyond this life (Pay your life)

There is a savior in the sky (Take my life)

Giving his life to set this world on fire (Set my heart on fire)

So hope won't let me down
