Such a misfit little girl
Afraid of love she hides away
She's stumbling through life
In a misfit shitty world
She makes it through each rainy day
Searching for light
She's lost out at sea
It's not meant to be
Oh, it's so bittersweet
He's so in too deep
He can't have the one who
Makes him complete
But that's how it goes
It's ok cos he knows
She did what she could
And baby it's all good
Such a left out little kid
Learning love the way he did
His smile's not real
Lives his life based on a lie
He watches his time passing by
He gave it all to her
He's lost out at sea
It's not meant to be
Oh, it's so bittersweet
He's so in too deep
He can't have the one who
Makes him complete
But that's how it goes
It's ok cos he knows
She did what she could
Baby, it's all good
Now his days have turned into grey
She keeps her smile though he feels this way
Falling from grace
This is the end
This is the end
