Everyone's life is a story
With a beginning and end
Some of us have hope and glory
While others pretend
There have been things I should have known all my life
It took a while but now I realize
Right in front of me as plain as can be
I just couldn't see

You were my favorite story, my favorite song
You were the main event in my life all along
You are my greatest adventure, my greatest surprise
I should've known all along, when I looked in your eyes
You'd be my favorite story.

Some of us love taking chances
Some of us just take it slow
Others they crave great romances where ever they go
Oh oh.
You were the paperback I couldn't put down
You were the melody that kept hanging around
Over and over again, and over again

And again, and again...
