Here they are bro...I'm trying to find the tab but I might have to figure it out:

If there's a storm don't blame me
It isn't my responsibility
To rule the world that's sitting on my shoulder
I can't stop time or change the weather
There's nothing I can do, but think of you
Crazy blue, Crazy blue
Look at me missing you
After all this time it's true
I must be crazy
Crazy blue

Pull the shadows off your face
Suddenly there's no more masks to chase
The burning sorrows from our memory
The kindness in your eyes and yet
Things we said in a word or two
Crazy blue
Crazy blue...look at me, missing you
After all this time it's true
I must be crazy
Crazy blue, it's a miracle
So many colors blending
You're a rainbow, a contradiction from my point of view

And is there nothing I can say
To make this feeling go away
A word a mantra, some cliché
You're in the sky, the ocean sewn
The horizons kiss you've stolen too,

Crazy blue, crazy blue,
Look at me missing you,
After all this time it's true
I must be crazy,
Crazy blue
Crazy blue
