I wanna reach out
I wanna pull back
I wanna feel needed
All at the same time

I wanna tear down
Billboards around me
Just to see how far
I am behind you

And the things you said about getting by
That made you shine in the dead of night
And made me want to cry

Hey now, hey now
Do you really think it could make a difference, yeah
Hey now, hey now
Do you really think it could make a difference, yeah
If I let you in

All the signs on TV
All the signs along the highways
Tell us what should matter most
Tell me you know, tell me you know

And the things you said about getting by
That made you shine in the dead of night
And made me want to cry

Hey now, hey now
Do you really think it could make a difference, yeah
Hey now, hey now
Do you really think it could make a difference, yeah
If I let you in

Hey now, hey now
Do you really think it could make a difference, yeah
Hey now, hey now
Do you really think it could make a difference, yeah
If I let you in
