Oh, the cuckoo, she's a pretty bird, and she warbles
when she flies
But she never hollers cuckoo till the fourth day of july.

Said jack odiamonds, well jack odiamonds, oh I know
you of old,
Honey you robbed me of my silver and out of all my
gold,
All of my gold, all of my gold.

Well, jack odiamonds, oh jack odiamonds, oh I know
you of old,
gold.

Said the cuckoo, she's a cruel bird, and she warbles
when she flies
And every time that she passes, my true love says good-bye,
Well, says good-bye, well says good-bye, Ooh, ooh ...
