Black pain
Withering away
In despise arrows of time
Made pacts with pain
You've not seen the one
Burning in the light of rising sun
You've not felt like one
Life loves death
Like phantasm morning comes
This dawn's not real
The light is cold and dim
Father death, your truth is veiled
By doubt and fear
You've not seen the one
Burning in the rising sun
You've not felt like one
Life weaves death
Like phantasm morning comes
They've not seen the one
Writhing in the light of rising sun
They've not felt like one
Life needs death
By dawning I'll be gone...
You've not seen the one
Burning in the light of rising sun
You've not felt like one
Life loves death
