Put a conclusion to this illusion I must be dreaming or barely awake
Who was the first to fall by the words last call and de scions that nobody could make.
Now I am dancing into the spring time out of the parking lot into the bay When faith and love collide the worlds just right there's no better time to get away.

Girl if you want it you better come and get it,
Cause I'm not saying sorry I'll most likely forget you.
Girl if you want it you better come and get it,
And we will sing along, we will sing along.

Burning down the city in the middle of the night
We light the sky with fire and with fire we ignite
From this angle the world looks so perfectly out of site
Let's go, and be the hero's again.

When you recognize me it kinda reminds me of being in context and falling in place
You are the perfect storm in the shape and form of a disguise that nobody could fake Now I get a feeling when looking at ceilings that you and I will make out fine

You're body moves like a wave and sets me free through the stars and satellites.

Girl if you want it you better come and get it,
Cause I'm not saying sorry I'll most likely forget you.
Girl if you want it you better come and get it,
And we will sing along, we will sing along.

Burning down the city in the middle of the night
We light the sky with fire and with fire we ignite
From this angle the world looks so perfectly out of site
Let's go, and be the hero's again

We can finally say we're not alone
We can watch the moonrise far from home.

Burning down the city in the middle of the night.
We light the sky with fire and with fire we ignite
From this angle the world looks so perfectly out of site
Let's go, and be the hero's again

In the middle of the night.
