Isn't is the greatest feeling when the winter's gone the summers on the rise
I can tell because it's in your eyes
Short sleeve short skirt weather rocking all the party's till the early light Hanging out the backseat window flipping off all the cars as we drive

This is the reoccurring dream that I've had on and on
For years and it's finally coming true
Our future hopes have just as soon become realities
And the best part is it's with you.

And if I fall a sleep with you tonight, I
Might fall to hard in love with you
And that's the anthem, of our summer days.
Don't ever, say never, these days could last forever.
Don't ever, say never, these days could last forever
with you.

Summer is an endless party, all the people and the places they come to life
Keeping it real that's how we stay alive.
Moving in the right directions, living like there's nothing left on the line.

Thinking about, nothing at all, nothing at all.

This is the reoccurring dream that I've had on and on
For years and it's finally coming true
Our future hopes have just as soon become realities
And the best part is it's with you.

And if I fall a sleep with you tonight, I
Might fall to hard in love with you
And that's the anthem, of our summer days.
Don't ever, say never, these days could last forever.
Don't ever, say never, these days could last forever
with you.

No there's nothing you can say I've spread out with my wings

And I know just what I want
Don't ever try to change my mind cause I'm not, coming back.

And if I fall a sleep with you tonight, I
Might fall to hard in love with you
And that's the anthem, of our summer days.
