The scars of the pain inflicted have healed
But we have not forgotten
We have not forgotten the rap
The exploitation of our brothers and sisters
Your path to riches has been built
On a road of our blood, sweat and tears
Through a divine consciousness we will
Ascend beyond your lust and degradation
Immunity to this infection
Your illusions lay dying in flames
Plunge the knife into the heart

Of this demonic oppression
Awaken, no tears are shed
In the name of our love
Cleansing, cleansing the earth of it's filth
Awaken, no tears are shed
In the name of our love
Cleansing, cleansing the earth to rebuild
Their blood fulfils the prophecy
Punishment for a life of sin
The vengeance consecrated
Condemned to fire
Wrath of god, seventh judgement
