

Day Of Suffering "Pawn"

The shadow of pestilence invades my every thought
I against I as my soul stands in purgatory
One step from hell
A promise writtin in my own blood
Is my only salvation
Tempting are the hollow shells of the apocalypse
As they revel in their deviance and corruption
The disciples of ancient cities fallen and forged
Anew beckon me, but I have chosen

This life of struggle, a nihilistic world, my enemy
A hardlin that cannot be broken
A new world vision
Suicide, suicide before betrayal
I will not serve this world of abominations
A clandestine evolution
Instead of a pawn you've created a prophet
And I prophesize the destruction of your world
