I went to a bar for a beer the other day and this is what i heard everybody say. that i dress bad and act worse, if there was an asshole olympics i would come in first. i hate this place it's run by fuckin' dinks, shut your fuckin face and gimme my fuckin drinks. so i went to my table with my beers. i can hear your shitass gossip ringing in my ears. but i don't get mad or be uptight. 'cause it happens like this every fuckin night. that's why i... drink beer smoke pot play music. you know i gotta a lot of what keeps me happy and gets me high. don't try to bring me down you know i'll never die.
