"Fuck The World"

I've been told my bands a waste
And all our songs are in bad taste
I'd like to think that we hate no one
And all our songs are just for fun
But you know that's not really true
'cause if you hate us then we hate you!

Fuck the world! If it can't take a joke!

I never intended to play that game
Hanging around with jerks like that would drive me insane
But I love playing music and I love what it does to your brains
So I swim against the tide fighting every inch of the way

I wrote this song to flush'em out
If you listen close you can hear them should
"you are assholes", "You make us sick"
And "all your songs aren't worth shit"

Well they can take their stupid signs
And stuff them up their fat behinds
There's room for us all in this place
Even if my songs are in bad taste

Fuck the world! If it can't take a joke!
