"What It Feels Like"

Summer nights on the beach, underneath the
raindrops
Wind blowing through your hair, this is what it feels like
Rose petals in the tub, listening to your favorite song
Every time our bodies touch, this is what it feels like

Any place that you want to explore I'm coming I'm assuming that you already know what pleases me
I think I'm 'bout to lose it Just watching you move it real slow, don't let it go

No need to speed up the pace
I can replace the past you had and redefine what passion is Got me feeling all kind of ways
You know I can't wait anymore, baby when I'm with you it's like

Summer nights on the beach, underneath the
raindrops
Wind blowing through your hair, this is what it feels like
Rose petals in the tub, listening to your favorite song
Every time our bodies touch, this is what it feels like

Like a brand new pair of shoes from your favorite designer
That's how it feels whenever you're touching me Loving you ain't hard to do
'Cause I, I feel so relaxed when I'm in your arms, oh

No need to speed up the pace
I can replace the best you've had and redefine what passion is
Got me feeling all kind of ways
You know I can't wait anymore, baby when I'm with you it's like, oh

Summer nights on the beach, underneath the
raindrops
Wind blowing through your hair, this is what it feels like
Rose petals in the tub, listening to your favorite song
Every time our bodies touch, this is what it feels like

So hot up in this room like a summer's heat in June Got a suite that's made for two, so turn the lights down Hold up, just stay right there, don't move girl let me stare
Your fragrance in the air, tell me what it feels like

Summer nights on the beach, underneath the
raindrops
Wind blowing through your hair, this is what it feels like
Rose petals in the tub, listening to your favorite song
Every time our bodies touch, this is what it feels like

Summer nights on the beach, underneath the
raindrops
Wind blowing through your hair, this is what it feels like
Rose petals in the tub, listening to your favorite song
Every time our bodies touch, this is what it feels like

Hey, come here baby
Let me whisper something in your ear
This is what it feels like

Summer nights on the beach, underneath the
raindrops
Wind blowing through your hair, this is what it feels like
Rose petals in the tub, listening to your favorite song
Every time our bodies touch
