It rains
Of roses that bleed
Tears that fall
From their heart
And seep into my soul.
But is it worth the fall?
To plunge into the dark
That lights path you walk,
This pain I've never felt.
A side I've never seen of you.

This is not my pain,
This is not my life.
I don't care about love.
This is not my pain,
This is not my life.
I don't care
Fuck it all.
And I don't want your sacrifice,
No not tonight.
Don't give it all away,
Give it all away,
Just for me.

Cause I hate
Anything you
Try to be.
What becomes of you
Is just a lie
An act you play out
Just in case

Your being watched
By more important eyes
Cause mine spell
Failure to you
Your being watched
By more important eyes
Cause mine spell
Failure to you

And I don't want your sacrifice,

No not tonight.
Don't give it all away,
Give it all away,
No not tonight

Yeah

Fuck... you... my... darling

Believe
Me I've tried

Your being watched
By more haunted eyes
Cause mine spell
Failure to you
So watch me decay
Under the weight
The weight of the world
On my shoulders

And I don't Really know
Where to start
As each new beat
Drops on the floor
This is just
The end
Of it all

This is just the end of it all
