CHOKES!

Words you shovel from your mouth read
Like nothing but forgotten
Fairytale, so close to being real, now
Now I see you and I see black clouds let acid rain pour down onto this town called "death".
You could've been so much more
You could've been so much more to me
You could've been so much more
You could've been so much more to me

"Here lies" the hearts of all our friends
Buried alive, we never had the chance
"Here lies" the hearts of all our friends
Buried alive, we never had the chance to die

(Scream for me now)
Words that cut your throat, and leave you to bleed
(Scream for me now)
Words that cut your throat, and leave you to bleed

Free
Me from this backstabbing
Hate,
Into a world where we
Don't need a lining of lies
To
Coat our poison hearts.

You could've been so much more
You could've been so much more to me
You could've been so much more
You could've been so much more to me

"Here lies" the hearts of all our friends
Buried alive, we never had the chance
"Here lies" the hearts of all our friends
Buried alive, we never had the chance to die.

(Scream for me now)
Words that cut your throat, and leave you to bleed
(Scream for me now)

Words that cut your throat, and leave you to bleed

The lips we use
To Kiss another,
They hold in,
Tongues of fire

(Scream for me now)
Words that cut your throat, and leave you to bleed
(Scream for me now)
Words that cut your throat, and leave you to bleed
(Scream for me now)
Words that cut your throat, and leave you to drain
(Scream for me now)
Words that cut your throat, they leave you to die
