The big hand ticks over
It's 3:13 am
And I think it's time
To lay my mind to rest
Like candles in the dark
I call on you for light
These crying eyes will paint
A portrait of my heart... and how
It will break, when death do us part
When the clock stops ticking
And we fall apart
We'll fall apart
I'll fall apart
You'll fall apart
We'll never fall apart

This is for you
For every beat missed
This is for you
For every bitter kiss
For the hearts around the world
Who'll forever walk alone
For the souls that cry at night
Finding their way home
But I won't forget you
So please don't forget me
I won't let you become
A broken memory... Broken

I love you, I love you, I love you, I love you

These lines seem endless
And when I'm with you
Time is everlasting
And so I reach out
Hope that these words
Will move your heart
And to all my friends
I thank you
For keeping this head
Above water
When I find it

Too Hard to Breathe

My heart Beats
And My Heart bleeds
In Synch with you
Falling tears

For the hearts around the world
Who'll forever walk alone
For the souls that cry at night
But I wont forget you
So please don't forget me
A broken memory
