Heather is sorry she can't go
And Heather is worried he won't show
You will but you wont, you might but you don't

But he will love you for all that you are
And he will love you for all that you're not
And I'll be there 'till he smartens up

Oh Heather's the prettiest girl in town, Oh Heather
Oh Heather, you'll find your way around

Boys are scared of what they don't know
Open your heart dear, show them you glow
You shove it all down, to ward off your frown

But he will love you for all that you are
And he will love you for all that you're not
And I'll be there 'till he smartens up

Oh Heather's the prettiest girl in town, Oh Heather
Oh Heather, you'll find your way around Oh Heather
Oh Heather, prettiest girl I've found
