So wait for us
You've been there before, I know
And it's better than this
Tied to the things that I can't forget
You can't run
Hold it together
You can't run
So far

Your voice on paper
All you never told (never told)
And I know it's too late
Came as no surprise
We will remember (it's over, gone)
You can't get any way
I can't get there (I can't get there)
I can't get there

Oh, time will always flow
One more dream that clouded up my eyes
Now that you know
Just read it and go

Your voice on paper
All you never told (never told)

And I know it's too late
Came as no surprise
We will remember (it's over, gone)
No you can't get any way
I can't get there (I can't get there)
I can't get there

Just one more year
Just one more year!

So wait for this and walk away
From here
When the day comes down nothing left to say
Hold on for this and walk away

So wait for this and walk away

It's almost better than before now it's gone
(and we'll find ourselves again) again!
You wait for this to end
You wait for this to end
