I was looking around
Searching for something new
But you were all I could see
My world just crashed right
My feelings start to run free
So we were meant to be
Whoaa I can't speak
Whoaa I can't breathe
You got my head inna daze
You gotta help me out
You gotta be with me
If you take my hand
We could fly away
We could be soo free
Baby you put me in jail
It's like I'm living in hell
I need you in my life
The ground begins to crack
I thought you had my back
And whoaaaa
How things began to settle
And whoaaaaa
I'm falling outta luck
Your justa riddle
I was looking around
Searchin for something new
But you were all I could see
The sun was coming down
My world just crashed right down
My feelings start to run free
Whoaa I can't speak
Whoaa I can't think
I can barely breathe
You got my head inna daze
You gotta help me out
You gotta be with me
If you take my hand
We can fly away we can go be free
You gave me life
You gave me day and night
You let me breathe
You wrote the words on my paper

Oh how you glued me together
But
I think it's time to go
I was looking around
Baby look what I found
A sun soo bright and new
The sun was coming up from night
He held my fingers tight
And said baby I love you
You broke my heart
And you left me in two
Now I'm home
With no more need from you
A sun soo bright
And
New
