Sitting up straight I said damn I kind of like this Whoa to grow grab the flow I wanna try this
Phone kicked up stacked up it's kinda of fucked up
Sitting back down I wanna close it not shut it
Seeing it nice nice now you want to bring it back
Fade the fade on the way and now it's back on track
Looking right up to the sky
Ask no questions but still I'm wondering why

(Chorus:)

This this time I'm drawing the line I said
(This) This time I'm drawing the line
This this time I'm drawing the line I said
(This) This time I'm drawing the line
This this time I'm drawing the line I said
(This) This time I'm drawing the line
This this time I'm drawing the line I said
(This) This time I'm drawing the line

Before you didn't know but look at all your progress
All that goes to show you gave up all your distress
Your showing and going and going and knowing
And knowing What's left damn it was given not stolen
Cause I am a piece of chalk
Trying to make my mark on the blackboard of our lives
Words of past are still my lifeline
They're getting me by Cause I don't really care the stare and then a look away
I don't really mind the time and then it's OK
A new day just doesn't bring us more time
You clean out my head my mind and then I'm feeling fine

(Chorus)

I close my ears and eyes and try to shut you out
Close my ears and eyes
I close my ears and eyes and try to shut you out
Close my ears and eyes
I close my ears and eyes and try to shut you out
Close my ears and eyes

I close my ears and eyes and try to shut you out
Close my ears and eyes

(Chorus)
