Remember when we said we shouldn't tell anyone?
Remember when we said we wouldn't tell anyone?
Remember when you went and just told everyone?
I bet you thought I'd never know

I heard you lost by
A couple of weeks, a bad day, and rumour, yeah
But I'm still doing fine.

Moving faster than you thought it would
Moving faster than you thought it could
What you said when you just told everyone
I guess you thought I'd never know

Too much patience too much patience
Too much patience to be given to anyone
So much patience so much patience
That was a lie all along

A couple of weeks, a bad day, and rumour, yeah
But I'm still doing fine.
I heard you lost by
A couple of weeks, a bad day, and rumour, yeah

Has anyone told you you're crazy?
Let me, guess what, I think you're crazy
No more patience no more patience
No more patience to be given to anyone
No more patience no more patience
That was just a lie all along.

A couple of weeks, a bad day, and rumour, yeah
But I'm still doing fine.
I heard you lost by
A couple of weeks, a bad day, and rumour, yeah
