Breaking day
Finally hours pass and they help
A cityscape
Communities that care and nurture

I am part of something bigger than the heartache
Wishing wishing you
Every happiness in your escape

I'm not breathing air
I'm breathing sunlight
I'm not breathing air
I'm breathing daylight

Daylight daylight daylight daylight
Daylight daylight daylight daylight
Daylight daylight daylight daylight
Daylight daylight daylight daylight
You're the tooth I want to pull
You're not the only one in my mouth
You're the face I want to lose
You're not the only face in my head

Ultraviolet radiates
Sterilizes the pin to myself
Daylight saving is an art
The daylight saving me from myself
Then the dark is coming in
Then the dark is coming in my blinds
Then the dark is coming in
Then the dark is coming in my blinds

Daylight daylight daylight daylight
Daylight daylight daylight daylight

You're the tooth I want to pull
You're not the only one in my mouth
You're the face I want to lose
You're not the only face in my head

Ultraviolet radiates
Sterilizes the pin to myself

Daylight saving is an art
The daylight saving me from myself

Still the night is coming in
Still the night is coming in my blinds
Still the night is coming in
Still the night is coming in my blinds
Still the dark is coming in
Then the dark is coming in my blinds
Still the night is coming in my blinds.
