Don't come back
You take my breath
Long before I die
I came to see you again
You make me pray
For being in love with you tonight
In every moment we have shared
You withheld all what I deserved
And left me with my pain
For every moment we have shared
You take away what I deserve

And leave me in despair
Long before I die
In every moment we have shared
You withheld all what I deserved
And left me with my pain
For every moment we have shared
You take away what I deserve
And leave me in despair
