You lead me though the harshest pain Though I injure you And you forgive me that I'm so mean It's not hard for you To be gentle with your heart and soul That is why i try Expell me if you don't believe But don't start to cry I beg you Lay down by my side To feel you You build up my pride And I swear I will be bound That I care Leave you save and sound There are times we disagree And we start to hate

But in the end we harmonize We hand on to each blade Forget the things I say to you When I'm in a rage Don't listen to the row I make You'd better skip this page I beg you Lay down by my side To feel you You build up my pride And I swear I will be bound That I care Leave you save and sound
