Give me your bright white eyes that i might see
The blindness of a narrow minded flea We cannot bridge the distance don't get you close to me How deep you must fall down to understand That selfishness is always built on sand Waiting for the impact You got nothing to defend
Im happy with you happy with you night and day
I feeling with you bleeding with you anyway
I can see no reaction
it's a strange affection
Im serving you Im serving you as I prey
Im leaving you deceiving you not today
I can feel no reaction
it's a strange affection
Im trapped within a naze of lies and fake don't have the strength to speak to fight or hate I hang in doupt my head is cramped Why did we seek the end
Im happy with you happy with you night and day
I feeling with you bleeding with you anyway
I can see no reaction
it's a strange affection
Im serving you Im serving you as I prey
Im leaving you deceiving you not today
I can feel no reaction
it's a strange affection
