Take my wings and take my hands
Put a weight round
Where I stand
And bind these ropes around my feet
If they're not tied
I can't concede

To never chase around the stars
Always the shadow
Of where you are
Only I'm as silent
As the sun
And as faithful
When I come

And I'd join you in your dreams
And if nothing comes between
I'll meet you out
Across the milky way

Let some light fall in this cell
Give me a pen so I can tell
Of transcendent radiance half seen
From today to what might be

But you might wake me when you come
And if all this joy is done
I'll come riding out
Across the milky way

And I'd join you in your dreams
And if nothing comes between
I'll meet you out
Across the milky way
