"Losing You"

What I have in me, in the mind is you, (I would die if we were through), what I'm feeling now, what I'm having is you, (I am lost in pain without you)

(So cold, so alone)

All I have is you, it is all that I'm breathing for, all I need is you, (Now I can't make it through)

All the nights I've prayed, mostly sadly untrue, (I am not prepared to be strong), I just can't believe I am losing you, (Not prepared to carry on), (I can see you walk away)

(So cold, so alone)

All I have is you, it is all that I'm breathing for, all I need is you, (Now I can't make it through), I am losing you forever, (I am lost in pain without you), I am leaving ground forever, (Forever, forever)

(These days are foul, destiny is selecting me) (murder these thoughts, life is disconnecting me), (NOOOOOOOO), (Loving is affecting me), (count all the times you were there protecting me)

So cold, (So alone), all I have is you, it is all that I'm breathing for, all I need is you, (Now I can't make it through), I am losing you forever, (I am lost in pain without you), I am leaving ground forever, (forever), all I have is you, (It is all that I'm breathing for), all I need is you, (Now I can't make it through)

It is all that I'm breathing for, (breathing for, breathing for), (breathing for, breathing for, breathing for)
