For so many years I tried to complete what I once started
But, something was always here. Hiding away from me
Kept me from making it happen, it's so unreal
The clock is ticking the time is passing me by, passing me by

Everywhere (Everywhere), all that is near
And now it's time to show them all, what I am, who I am,
what I think

Answer me for all that I'm asking
Taking back what I've been missing
Looking back making me stronger
My despair breaks me no longer
My despair

So we think, got of my escape out from your prison
I am was, out of myself. Strike as I never Feelings of fear, feelings of joy, nothing can get me now.
Feeling alive may take me longer than I ever expected.
Everywhere (Everywhere), all that is near,

And now it's time to show them all, what I am, who I am,
what I think

Answer me for all that I'm asking
Taking back what I've been missing
Looking back making me stronger
My despair breaks me no longer

Everywhere (Everywhere), all that is there
Everywhere (Everywhere), all that is near Answer me for all the I'm asking
Taking back what I've been missing
Looking back making me stronger
My despair breaks me no longer
My despair
My despair
