I met this guy and his name was dizman he was a singer in a local band Took me in when i was feeling down he told me things would turn around I lost all hope and died inside living in the lies i hide Cheer up kid it can always get better when it's pouring rain you can't get any wetter Its a world of hypocrites hit bottom and you'll witness it You can fight back and rule the world inspire the lonely boys and girls
He showed me drugs and alcohol acid trips i can recall
This is everything i wanted to be but i had no idea it was part of me
He is the evil inside of me he's all the kids who ever picked on me
He's a festering disease and now he's taking over me
He is the evil inside of me he's all the kids who ever
picked on me
He's a festering disease and now he's taking over me
I am this kids wasted life i am his lonely mental insight I'm everything that ever made him cry i'm every one of this kids lies I'm where he went when he was scared had to tell him life's not fair
Had to tell him no one cared he wanted out of his nightmare
Be lost all hope and he wanted to die i shook his hand and i said goodbye
I took his life and i took his mind i took his soul and it's mine
He is the evil inside of me he's all the kids who ever
picked on me
He's a festering disease and now he's taking over me
He is the evil inside of me he's all the kids who ever
picked on me
He's a festering disease and now he's taking over me
I wanted a change but i never wanted this But you have to sacrifice to move forward kid
This has gone to far i want it to end
But this is just the beginning my friend
No i'm taking over i'm ending it fuck you

You created me what the hell you gona do You can't kill me i'm stronger then you All you anger and sadness that's how i grew Your nothing now but a just a memory kid You'll watch what i do like a silent witness It may be your body in may be your mind
But you gave it to me and now it's mine
