The pain will not subside but i will do what it takes I'm all alone inside but i wont give up and break
If ever i had reason it means nothing now Kill all the pain inside 'cause i will win somehow
I will win i will win somehow
All these thoughts are kept inside when in fear i run
and hide
Now these thoughts i must confide it's time to put my fear aside
All these thoughts are kept inside when in fear i run
and hide
Now these thoughts i must confide it's time to put my
fear aside
I cannot give up hope for it is all i got I have no self esteem my soul is tied in knots
If ever i had reason it means nothing now
Kill all the pain inside me 'cause i will win somehow
I will win i will win somehow
All these thoughts are kept inside when in fear i run
and hide
Now these thoughts i must confide it's time to put my
fear aside
All these thoughts are kept inside when in fear i run
and hide
Now these thoughts i must confide it's time to put my
fear aside
I was born into this mess just to put me to the test
With this curse i've been blessed i will rise above the rest
I was born into this mess just to put me to the test
With this curse i've been blessed i will rise above the
I was born into this mess just to put me to the test
With this curse i've been blessed i will rise above the
I was born into this mess just to put me to the test
With this curse i've been blessed i will rise above the
All these thoughts are kept inside when in fear i run
and hide

Now these thoughts i must confide it's time to put my
fear aside
All these thoughts are kept inside when in fear i run
and hide
Now these thoughts i must confide it's time to put my
fear aside
Its time to put my fear aside
Its time to put my fear aside
