This sweaty sensation gives me a thrill.
The scent of our bodies lingers the air
And I have been moving motions like never before.
As I look in her eyes I fear no more.
As these dirty thoughts they twist and turn
Through and through my mind...

(Chorus)

Don't keep it in.
While your screaming my name.
When the town is falling fast asleep.
Your screaming my name the intensity builds up
Falling stupidly in love...

And now she's looking deeply into my eyes
As my intentions warm her tonight.
I can feel the fire burning inside.
Please don't let this moment pass us by
Cause I don't ever want to fall asleep
Just wanna lay and feel your body heat
It feels so good it feels so good.

(Chorus)

So kiss me goodbye. Spoken words sing like a lullaby and I'll crave your skin till I die. So please don't you go and stay here adventure my love once again... once again...

(Chorus)
