

Dead Girl's Requiem "Hold Me"

I can't explain how is now
I can't explain how I feel I need to scream
I want to run and get lost
Then cry and just fall
Cry again and scream louder than ever

*Give me a reason to believe
Hold me stronger than no one
Tell me that you love me
More than a hundred times
I really need to hear
I feel too much fear
Please hold me forever

And when you fall into my eyes
And when you're in my arms
My whole world disappears
With out you I wouldn't be alive
I can not dream again
I just want to smile again

*Give me a reason to believe
Hold me stronger than no one
Tell me that you love me
More than a hundred times
I really need to hear
I feel too much fear
Please hold me forever

I'll be there

*To give you a reason to believe
To hold you stronger than no one
Screaming that I love you
More than a thousand times
Just don't be afraid I swear I will be there
Beside you forever
